

Exclusive Indonesian AUTOMOTIVE Directory, 2013 - 2014

Presently, Indonesian automotive industry becomes a target of world automotive industries due to its rapid growth in the country. Year 2012 was the first history of automotive sales exceeding 1 million units and predicted to reach 1.5 million units in 2015. Viewing such great potential, foreign investors compete to invest their capital by issuing fantastic fund.

Viewing positive and prospective Indonesian economic growth, in 2012 there were 12 leading world automotive industries constructing new plants or enlarging their plants with investment value of hundreds American dollars. Swift automotive industrial growth was also followed by rapid growth of automotive component industries in the country.

Based on information received by CDMI that in 2013 there are some 40 – 50 investors of automotive component industry who will enter Indonesia with invested fund reaching US$ 1 billion, coming from various countries including Japan, Taiwan, Thailand, China, India and Germany. Some of those investors have already realized it by purchasing a land for plant facilities like plant construction, machinery purchasing, employee recruitment and training. The companies will produce various automotive components for domestic and export markets.

Various ways performed by investors to enter Indonesian automotive industry, through the establishment of new companies with Foreign Capital Investment (PMA) facility or through business cooperation with local companies. Based on investigation of CDMI that there are automotive companies in Indonesia which have already been acquired by them so the share composition and management of the companies were already changed.

Observing the enthusiasm of the companies above, P.T. Central Data Mediatama Indonesia (CDMI), a leading independent consultant, is interested in performing a deeper investigation and finally collected automotive company data and published them in a directory book with the title of “Exclusive Indonesian AUTOMOTIVE Directory, 2013 - 2014”.
